Property Description

Stunning, luxury bungalow in the prestigious La Cerquilla, Nueva Andalucía, set on a south-facing plot with partial golf views. Originally built by Bonifacio Solís in 2013 and meticulously updated in 2024 by Matterhorn Estates, this home seamlessly blends elegance, comfort, and nature. Its breathtaking garden, designed by Fantastic Garden, features towering ficus trees, Washingtonia palms, jacarandas, and tropical species like Strelitzia nicolai and Cycas revoluta, creating an exclusive botanical retreat. The single-level layout ensures effortless flow, with five serene bedrooms—two of them en-suite—offering direct garden access. At the heart of the home, a stunning Danespan kitchen with a central island and two dining areas opens to spacious living rooms, a home library, and an office. A wraparound covered terrace invites year-round outdoor living, while features like Technal security windows, Lutron lighting, a private water tank, and a four-car garage ensure comfort and security. This exceptional villa embodies the evolution of Marbella from a bohemian retreat to an enclave of exclusivity, offering luxury, privacy, and proximity to world-class amenities.
